GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

OUR ANNUAL OPENING

—OF—

Women's Muslin and Cambric Underwear

AS IN THE PAST, our efforts this year have been exerted to gather together a stock of Underwear that would give the greatest satisfaction in quality of materials, workmanship and perfect fit.

And while the prices are as low as can possibly be afforded, the high class work we do not enter into competition with the inferior grade of goods largely sold at seemingly low prices.

The stock now placed on exhibition is all new and fresh. No shop-worn or counter-soiled goods in the lot and there is only the latest styles and shapes.

We mention today some

Special Bargains

Which cannot be duplicated at the prices:

Fine Muslin Corset Covers, 19c
Fine Cambric Corset Covers, 23c
Night Dresses, 39c
Walking Skirts, 35c
Drawers, 21c

In connection with the special bargains in Muslin Underwear, we name some unusual values

In Children's White Dresses

At 40c, 50c, 60c, 80c, 90c

Infants' Long Slips

At 20c, 30c, 50c, 80c, $1.00 and $1.25

It is well to remember that when we purchase special bargains it is not safe to postpone examination for a single day. The reason is that all our notions are eagerly scanned, and as we positively avoid all forms of sensational advertisements it has been proven by experience that everything mentioned in our notices is precisely as stated; therefore, this response is prompt and large lots are sometimes sold in a few hours or days, as it may happen.

JERMYN SCINTILLATIONS.

All the News of the Day Brightly Paraphrased.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
JERMYN, Pa., March 11.—Mr. Harriet Russell, of Fourth street, who fell recently, breaking three ribs, has suffered a relapse and now has pneumonia.

W. L. Houghton has moved into the house of C. W. Stanton.

Mrs. David Reave, of Second street, is seriously ill.

This week the ladies of the Home Missionary society held a very interesting meeting at home of Mrs. William Nicholson.

Miss Ida Davis spent Saturday afternoon in Carbondale.

Soo Hoo Lee has disposed of his laundry business to Lou Wing, of Scranton. Soo Hoo will locate either in Nanticoke or Susquehanna.

The Ontario and Western will run an excursion to Wilkes-Barre on March 17. The return fare from here will be $1.25.

The Rev. Mr. Watkins occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church yesterday.

Miss Ellen Clark, of Scranton, is visiting her mother on the East Side.

A large number of the members of Reebrook lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will visit Olive Leaf lodge, of Carbondale, this evening, and witness the degree work as done there.

Professor and Mrs. W. G. Prim, of Forest City, are spending Sunday here.

Rev. Teyson Jones, of Pittsburgh, formally of this place, will act as adjudicator at an Easter-day to be held in Wilkes-Barre March 16.

James Prior, of Second street, who has been confined to the house for a number of months, is so far recovered as to be able to be out this fine weather.

Mr. Badger and daughter, Miss Fannie, of Binghamton, N. Y., are visiting William Badger, of J. street.

Criticizing a Young Lady.

"She would be a pretty girl for but one thing."

"What's that?" asked Charley.

George—Her face is always covered with purple and red blotches.

Charley—Oh, that's easily enough disposed of. Used to be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time.

George—What was it?

Charley—Simply blood eruptions. Took a short course of P. P. P. I tell you, it's the best blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism so bad that you could hear him holler clear across the country every time he moved. He tried it, and you know what an athlete old gent he is now. If somebody would give Miss Daisy a pointer, she would thank them after wards. All the drug stores sell it.

THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

OVER AT OLYPHANT.

Daily Record of the Affairs of an Enterprising Town.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

OLYPHANT, Pa., March 11.—The teacher's local institute was held at the Winton school Saturday morning. Teachers from Olyphant, Dickson, Blakely and Winton were in attendance.

Miss Kanyon, principal of the Pockville school, read "Hinges' Mistake," in a very pleasing manner. Miss Nina Murphy, of Blakely, discussed arithmetic. Miss Mary McAndrew, of Olyphant, gave a very interesting talk on geography; and Professor John Mahony treated on primary reading. Miss Annie Brown, of Winton, rendered some very pleasant vocal selections and others recited in a very pleasing manner and were heartily applauded.

Among the visitors were County Superintendent Taylor, of Scranton, and Professor R. N. Davis and Miss Alice Sweeney, of Archbald.

Mrs. J. W. Kennedy and daughter, Jennie, of Blakely, spent Thursday visiting friends and relatives at Carbondale.

Miss Sadie McGovern, of Jermy, visited Miss Katie Loftus, of Hill street, Wednesday.

Miss Annie Carroll, of Carbondale, visited her sister, Mrs. J. W. Sweeney, on Lackawanna street the latter part of the week.

Miss Jennie Ferguson, the popular milliner expects to go to New York this week to buy her spring goods.

D. G. Black, the insurance agent, of Nicholson, was in town Saturday.

Thomas McHale, a driver boy at the Eddy Creek shaft, sustained a broken leg Saturday morning. He was removed to his home on Hill street, where Dr. Van Sickle set the injured member.

Miss Agnes Hill, of Keystone academy, at Factoryville, spent Sunday at her home in Blakely.

Miss Rachel Evans has accepted a position as cashier at Gorman's Grand Depot, Scranton.

Miss Sadie Rogan, of Dunmore street, is confined to the house with inflammatory rheumatism.

James Martin has resigned his position with Fetter & Chappeal at Providence, and will take charge of the hotel owned by his mother.

DURVEA DIMPLES.

Social Equilibria From a Source on the Susquehanna.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

DURVEA, Pa., Mar. 11.—The first annual masquerade social under the auspices of the Adonis dancing class, will be held at Singer's hall on the 27th inst. Mention need only be made of the master of ceremonies, Dr. John Hieslop and his corps of assistants to insure all who desire to attend a magnificent time. The doctor and his aids are leaving nothing undone to make the social paramount to any former event conducted by this cultured assembly.

Frank Kashube, who for the past two years conducted the Columbus hotel on Main street, will vacate a hostelry on or about April 1, and move to Pittston, where he expects to engage in the same business.

Edward McGinnis, of Main street, is arranging his house preparatory to a venture in the hotel business. Mr. McGinnis was the only applicant in Marcy township granted a hotel license.

The new Polish church on Stephenson street is fast nearing completion under the supervision of Contractor Mulhern, of South Scranton.

A man named Gallagher from Pittston, who is evidently of "let her go" fame, issues a sweeping challenge to Ezra Beaker, one of our town sprinters, and offers him ten yards in a 100 yard dash.

The beautiful and inviting outdoor weather which seems to influence the blue bird to leave its winter abode, seems to have a similar effect on the irrepresible horse jockey, as a vast number of trades have been consummated in town during the past week.

The school board held their regular monthly meeting at the graded school on Friday evening. It was short and spirited, as was exemplified by some of the members having in perfect order their exonerations to shave down a portion of tax exonerations presented by an ex-collector.

Edward McGinnis is repairing his hotel building on Sweetland street.

Fred Stuckey, the popular barber, has started in the horse trading business. All people interested in trading fast horses are invited to give him a call.

Charles Allen and wife have gone to New York city for a few days.

ARCHBALD AND VICINITY.

Events of Interest Intelligently Discussed by a Talented Writer.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

ARCHBALD, Pa., March 11.—The borough council has decided to place an arc electric light in front of St. Thomas' church. It is generally conceded that a light is needed there, the space in front of the church being particularly dark, owing to its distance from the lights at the square and White Oak bridge. The two latter lamps will be so changed that the light will be more evenly distributed.

It is also probable that the school board will place an arc lamp in front of or near the graded school building. This will avoid the necessity of a light at White Oak bridge which may be moved farther down Laurel street. It was expected that the board would take action on the light matter at Monday's meeting but owing to a press of other business the subject was deferred.

The Young Men's Social club intends to erect a building to be devoted to the purpose of the club. Several desirable sites for the proposed building have been under consideration for some time, but no definite selection has yet been made. It is likely, however, that a lot on South Railroad street will be chosen. The energetic young men who compose the club feel warranted in going to this expense on account of the prosperity that has attended them within the past two years.

There is talk of a resumption of work at the old "Sebastopol" beaker. At this time of writing the truth of the rumor could not be learned. The breaker has not been in operation for several months.

President Blake, of the borough council, has appointed the following gentlemen to membership on the board of health: John J. Philbin in the First ward, Michael Moran and Charles McDonnell in the Second ward, and Michael Nealon in the Third ward. The board will meet during the week. The exact date will be announced later.

On Friday evening the Crescent Electric company of this place turned the electric current on to the street for the first time. Nine lamps were lighted. The service is fully as good as the company has given here.

The Archbald Bee made its first appearance on Saturday morning. It is a sprightly eight page paper which readily found favor in the people here. The editor is Mr. J. W. Gould, formerly of THE TRIBUNE.

Mrs. T. J. Healy, of Main street, called on friends in Scranton on Friday.

Mrs. P. Kearney, of Green Ridge, made a brief call on friends here on Friday.

Mrs. Alra Eaton, of Benton, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned home.

Martin Cawley, Jr., of Pine street, sustained a sprained ankle on Thursday.

Mrs. P. Kearney, of Green Ridge, made a brief call on friends here on Friday.

Mrs. Alra Eaton, of Benton, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned home.

Martin Cawley, Jr., of Pine street, sustained a sprained ankle on Thursday.

Lock Samson, the bright young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Samson, of Durvea, was 7 years old on Thursday last. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lack, wishing to observe the occasion invited about two dozen of their grandsons' playmates to their home on Main street and pleasantly entertained them for several hours. The little ones had a very merry time. Mr. and Mrs. Lack and their daughter, Mrs. Samson, made things very agreeable for the young guests, who romped and feasted to their heart's content. Young Lock received many beautiful birthday tokens.

Jacob Linderman has purchased the Campbell building, in the rear of the Ontario and Western depot, and is having it moved to the lot on Monroe street, which he and John Boon bought recently.

James Hughes and son John, of Salem street, who have been ill for several weeks, are able to be about again.

John Carroll is adding a story to his store at White Oak bridge. When the improvements now under way are completed the building will be used as a cigar factory.

Miss Mary Gaughan, of Scranton, is visiting friends here.

Daniel Mahon, of Mt. Vernon, sustained a severe sprain to his right arm by falling as he jumped from a moving train on Thursday evening. He was returning from work at the Raymond mine.

The funeral of the late Mrs. William Farrell, of Hill street, took place on Friday. Services were held by Rev. Father Lucas, at St. Thomas' church, during which he read the obituary notice and the many good traits of the deceased late. Interment took place in the Catholic cemetery.

M. J. Swift and E. F. Blake were in Scranton on Saturday.

FROM FOREST CITY.

Our Regular Correspondent's Budget of Interesting News.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FOREST CITY, Pa., Mar. 11.—Arthur May returned to his home in this place Friday evening from Cazenovia, N. Y., where he had been attending Cazenovia Seminary for some months past. Mr. May will remain here until the first of April at which time he will leave for Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.

Rev. Abner Morrill, of Susquehanna, preached both morning and evening in the First Baptist church today. Rev. D. P. Lappens, the pastor, occupied the pulpit at Susquehanna.

Mrs. J. D. Cary entertained the following ladies at a quilting "bee" Friday afternoon: Mrs. W. H. Bates, Mrs. H. D. Allen, Mrs. W. L. Bates, Mrs. G. S. Emery, and Mrs. I. V. Smith. An enjoyable afternoon was spent, tea being served at 6 o'clock.

Hugh McCollum, of Montrose, revenue collector, in company with E. C. Fordham, ex-collector, was in town Friday. Professor and Mrs. W. G. Trim, visited in Jersey yesterday.

The cantata "Rebecca" was rehearsed Friday evening in Davis' Opera house under the direction of Professor J. Luther Morgan. The singers gave proof of excellent training, the solo parts being especially good, and the chorus is up to the standard. Tickets are now for sale at 25, 35 and 50 cents. Do not miss a musical treat, but come to the opera house Saturday evening, March 17.

A typographical error occurred in yesterday's Forest City item to THE TRIBUNE. The name John Masey should have read John Matey.

Dr. D. Dwyer, of Carbondale, was engaged professionally in town yesterday.

The following were guests at the Forest House yesterday: C. S. Stevens, Elmira, N. Y.; George Hickerson, New York city; James Woolley, Scranton; Joe Finnigan, Scranton; Pa.; D. V. Personius, Waverly, N. Y.

Oliver Coyle was a visitor to the Anthracite City yesterday afternoon.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.

A Pleasing Program Prepared by the Adagena Society.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

DURVEA, Pa., March 11.—The Adagena Literary society held their first meeting at De la Hall Friday evening and completed their election of officers. The officers elected were Mr. O. B. Richards as librarian, and Miss Ella Benedict as assistant librarian. Miss Ella Benedict was also elected recording secretary. Dr. John Hieslop and Hon. D. H. Evans were elected as members of the board of governors. The society have the following well selected programs:

A debate by four members, the subject for debate being, "Resolved, That the electric railroad is a benefit to Durvea." Mr. Ward and Miss Benedict for the affirmative, and Mr. Evans and Miss Kennedy as the negatives. The debate will be followed by a vocal solo by Mr. R. J. Gilroy; an instrumental solo by Miss Anna Mulwarring; a vocal solo by James Clark; reading of statistics by James Clark; a vocal solo by Miss Ella Mengar and a recitation by the secretary, Miss Anna Watch.

Head and Arms Seemed on Fire

A Sunstroke Followed by Nervous Prostration

Hood's Restored Health.

Mr. Edward Scollin Philadelphia, Pa.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen—On August 19, I was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, unconscious from the heat; my temperature was 100.9. I remained in the hospital two weeks; I was unable to work for four weeks after that, but then felt compelled to turn in, as I have a wife and five children. I soon began to feel as though my appetite became so voracious that I would be compelled to eat between meals.

Every Nerve and Fibre of my body seemed in a constant state of quivering agitation and tremulousness. Heat flashed from the calves of my legs up through my thighs and body; my left arm and hand felt as though on fire, and my head ached as if it would split when I stooped down. I had great pains in my back around the base of the spine. I continued to stick to my work, feeling that if I must again go down I would do so.

Struggling for My Family. I have always been athletic, but I had lost all appetite, and my strength failed me; I was on the point of giving up. I had read much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, and concluded to give it a trial. Before I had taken half a bottle my appetite became so voracious that I would be compelled to eat between meals.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has now fully restored my strength and general health. That terrible nervousness is entirely gone. I feel as hearty and vigorous as ever. The pains in my back and the heat in my head have disappeared. I feel as though I had been reborn.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.
